With Love on Mother's Day

BY: MR. JOHN AGOSTINI

Let us show our love towards our dear mothers for the respect, devotion, kindness, and caring they gave to their children throughout the years.

We are grateful for their sweet love!

SMSC AQUATIC CENTER

TRITON SWIM TEAM

Triton team mates, Katie Ellison and Coleen Baucom at the pool!

The Triton's had their first swim meet on Saturday, April 9th in the SMSC pool. All Triton team members did an excellent job and took home many 1st, 2nd and 3rd place ribbons! The next swim meet will be with S4EA on Saturday, July 23rd. The date of the Triton Family Fun Meet has not been determined but will be held at SMSC's Aquatic Center.

Coleen Baucom competed in the butterfly, the most difficult swim stroke to learn and perform!

SMOOTHIES!

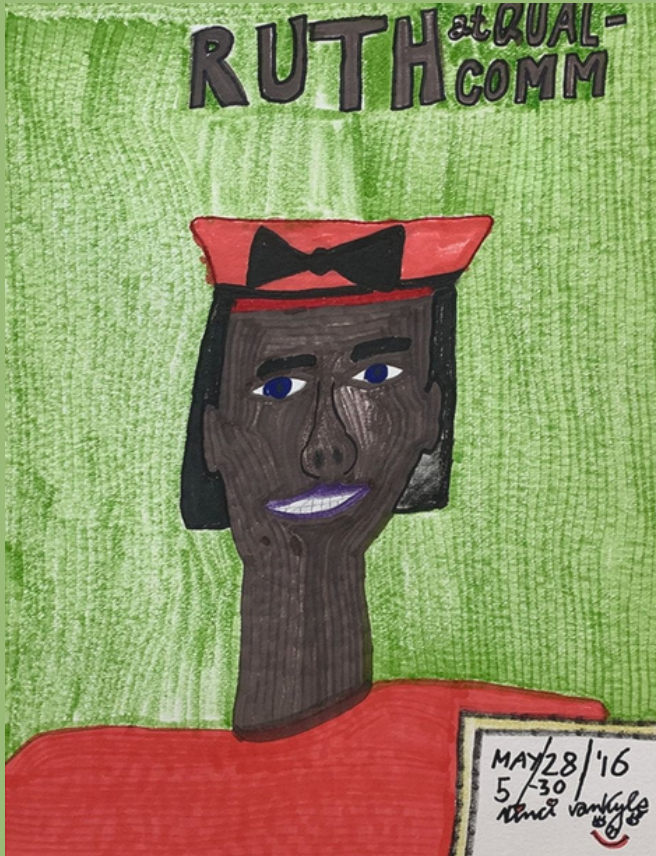

BY

Cali Williams

I love having a smoothie, especially with my Grandmother! There are so many enjoyable recipes to make different kinds of smoothies and you can enjoy them by drinking them in a glass or eating them in a bowl. Smoothies are made of different items like milk, fruits, nuts, and seeds, and ice to make it cold. Mix them in a blender and enjoy a refreshing and healthy snack!

Ruth at Qualcomm © Kyle Coopridier 2016

Kyle Coopridier is a prolific artist who specializes in expressive portraits using markers to create line and texture in his work. Studying painting with Ken Goldman at the Athenaeum for 20 years, he was encouraged to improve his technical skills while maintaining his self-taught vision. Goldman said, "Kyle is loved by his fellow artists." He added, "Since he can no longer attend classes, his squeaky markers are missed by all!" After decades of painting, he has developed a recognizable style of bold and colorful pieces using the moniker Vinci Van Kyle. He identifies with Vincent Van Gogh - as painters they share a lively color palette, a deep passion for art, and both men have endured tragic events in their lifetimes. Kyle's life was forever changed when he sustained a traumatic brain injury in an automobile accident years ago. Kyle transcended his injury to discover an artistic gift and a unique style of art that he loves to share with others!

DREAM IT... DO IT!

"It feels like a dream come true" John remarked about being back at St. Madeleine's. "I love seeing my fellow students and the staff" he added. "St. Madeleine's holds the key to our future!" John was excited to hear that his painting of Marilyn Monroe was chosen for the 2022 Haute with Heart Fashion Show: Diamonds are a Girl's Best Friend. He is even more excited to wear a tuxedo to the event! Over the years John's artwork has been used for many of SMSC's fashion show invitations including his paintings of actresses Lucille Ball, Elizabeth Taylor, and Susan Hayward to name a few. Offering encouragement to his friends at SMSC, John said, "Believe everything is possible and remember you are gifted by God. Dream it, Do it!"
